HOW THE NEW GOLF CHAMPION OF AMERICA PLAYS HIS GAME

Sketches and Descriptions of Chick Evans By Johnstone at the Merion Cricket Club—Evans Uses Little Sand in Making His Tee—Champion's Ability in Approaching is Remarkable—Chicagoan Uses Aluminum Schenectady Putter

"Chick" Evans, the new national golf champion of the United States, is the most finished golfer in the world, according to Harry Vardon and other British experts, men who have been playing the ancient game for many years.

Evans, after years of hard luck, has achieved his ambition. He has won both the premier titles offered in this country in the national open—open to amateurs and professionals—at Minneapolis and more recently the national amateur in Philadelphia.

Evans long has been recognized as a great player. He has faced the hardest men to beat in this country and in England. He has won many tournaments, but never before the open for the national amateur. He has the best of the country offered at Philadelphia in match play and outshot the best professional, including Earl Barton at Minneapolis, where the score was by model play—the total number of strokes for 72 holes.

So, it's something to know, if you are a golf player, how to play like Chick Evans does. Here it is:

Before starting a tournament, Chick Evans, national amateur and open golf champion of the United States, walks the tournament course to make a dozen or so practice shots with each club. He seldom takes a practice swing while playing.

When Evans drives he assumes a position standing with his driver held close to the ball and his head up, his eyes concentrated on the course.

He then steps quickly up to the ball, takes two twinges with his driver and shoots. He wastes no time after he has located his range.

His drives are long and low, averaging more than 200 yards.

In making his tee, Evans uses little sand and his tee is low.

The face of the driver used by the champion is lined with ivory. He uses the Red Honor ball.

Chick does not use the overlapping grip Vardon introduced in this country, but holds the stick with his thumbs facing down the shaft. Aproaching

Chick Evans, national amateur and open golf champion of the United States, attributes much of his success to his approach shots. His ability in this department is remarkable.

If he is 20 yards from the green he is almost certain to place the ball not only on the green, but near the hole.

If Evans is 20 yards from the hole he plays his spoon, but under 100 yards he usually resorts to his maulie niblick. The face of his niblick is heavily corrugated and gives a back spin to the ball.

In making shots Evans always concentrates first. He has a deceptive swing in making his approach shot and spectators get the impression that he is certain to overshoot his mark.

But the champion makes allowance for the ball taking up turf in front of the hole. Hence, with the back spin the distance is always nearly perfect.

The ball lands on the green and rolls only a few feet. This pitch makes a more spectacular shot than the rolling approach.

Putting

Chick Evans, national amateur and open golf champion of the United States, uses an aluminum or Schenectady putter.

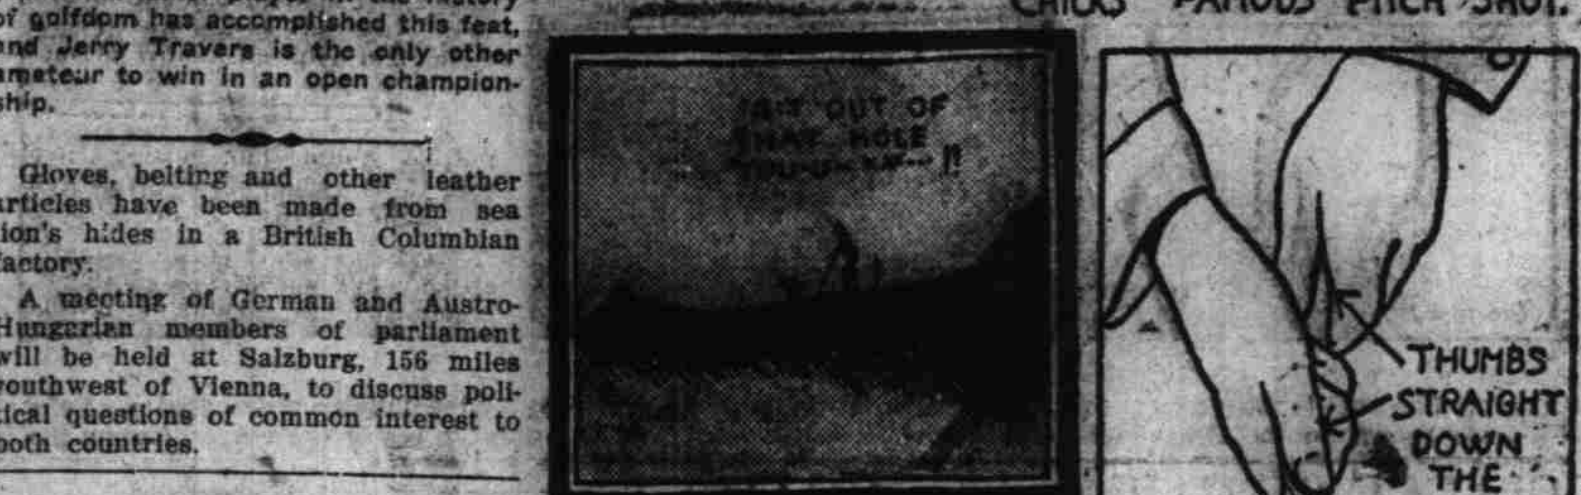

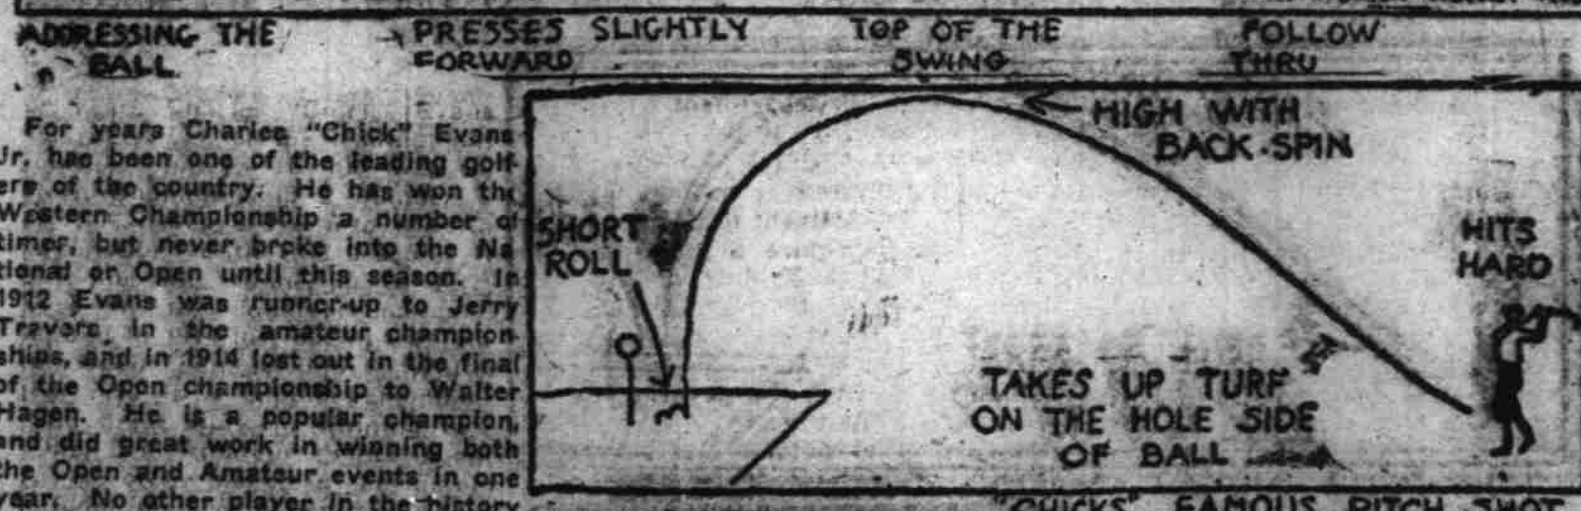

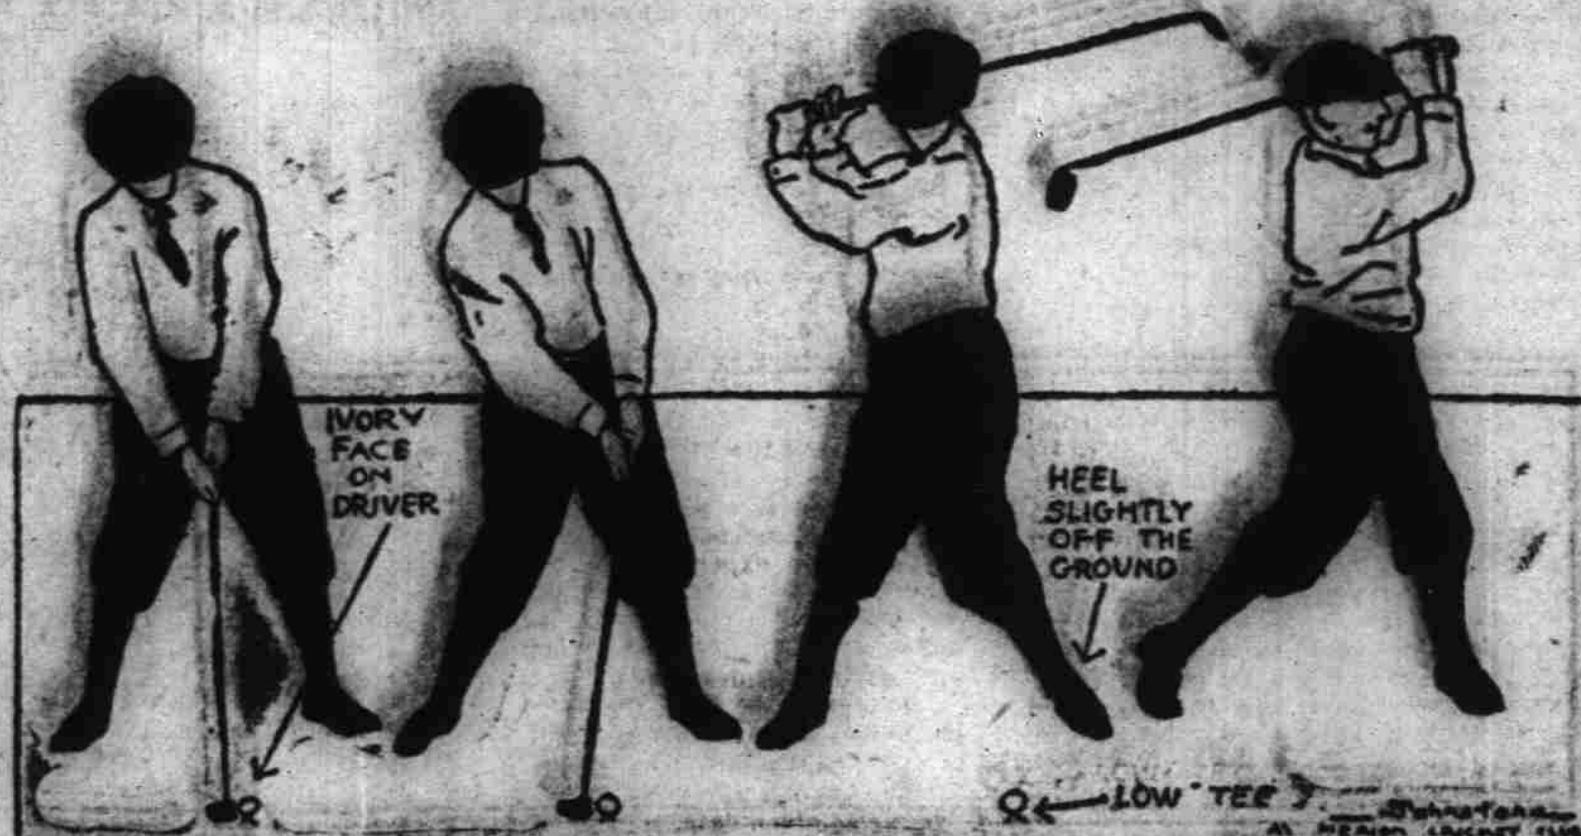

He stands with his heels close together and his hands closely wrapped about the handle of his stick.

Evans differs from other golfers in this respect in that he practically puts with one hand, his left. His right hand grips the putter lightly, merely to help give direction to the ball.

Evans studies the green intently before making his shot, and sometimes lines up his ball from the opposite side of the hole.

The champion is at all times cool and calculating. He never lets anything ruffle him. Even the wax mustaches or the Philadelphia society boys failed to get his goat in the tournament in which he just won the amateur championship.

NATIONAL GUARD WILL HAVE FAST FOOTBALL SQUAD

Members Meet Last Evening to Prepare for Gridiron Season; General May Play

Members of the National Guard will have a football team this year, and if the answer to the first call is any criterion, the guard will have a good one.

At a meeting held last evening at the armory a number of candidates were present and all were confident that the national guard could turn out a strong team.

Among the players who will turn out for the team are: McCandless, Hirsch, Parker, Carter, Lynn, Desha, Aylett, Anderson, McKiff and, perhaps General Sam Johnson. The general has a good record in football, and wants to encourage the sport here.

Practice will be held evenings from 5 to 6 o'clock. The first practice for the organization, and distribution of suits, will be held on Alexander field at 5 o'clock Friday evening. There were a number of stars on last year's team, including Bill Ross, Leo, Purvis and Brann, who are still in the city, and without doubt there will be a strong team to play the Coast Artillery and Schofield teams.

MEADOW BROOKS WIN POLO GAME FROM PHILLIES

28 Goal Team Wins From All-Philadelphia Team By Score of 15 to 12½

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 22.—Meadow Brook's polo team came over from Long Island today and crossed mallets with the All-Philadelphia team, playing as the Southeastern team in the inter-circuit polo matches, and won by a score of 15 to 12½ goals.

Ten thousand or more spectators crowded the club house, and grand stands and hundreds were on the grounds overlooking the field.

The winners, playing as the Eastern circuit team, lined up with Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., Watson Webb, Malcolm Stevenson and Devereux Milburn, with a total team handicap of 28 goals.

The Philadelphia players—Thomas, Stanley and Lower Stokes and R. E. Strawbridge—had a total team handicap of 37 goals and so received 11 goals.

They scored three goals against the fast riding and hard hitting Meadow Brook players, who were compelled to play at top speed to win.

The total score indicates the excellent system of handicapping adopted by the Polo Association, whose chairman, Henry L. Herbert, declared that several periods of today's game were the best in any match for several years.

The team work of both teams was excellent throughout, and Meadow Brook's victory was due to her speedier horses and the aggressive work of the players, two of whom are of international timber.

Scores of polo enthusiasts who came over from New York and other cities were more than repaid for the journey. It was not until the middle of the fifth chukker that Meadow Brook tied the score.

GERMAN OFFICERS' PAY TO BE REDUCED BEGINNING OCT. 1

BERLIN, Germany.—Beginning Oct. 1, says the Overseas News agency, the salaries of all German officers will be reduced. The salary of the minister of war and the chief army commander will be reduced by 1,000 marks a month and lieutenants by sixty marks. Married officers and those who have parents depending upon them are allowed special indemnities. The reduction had been asked for by the reichstag in December, 1915.

Lord of Manor Coming Here To Fish For Tuna

H. Gooding Field, secretary of the Hawaii Tuna Club, has received word from Hon. William Hodgson, vice-president of the Tuna Club of Catalina and lord of the manor of Hitehin, England, that he will leave November 1 for Hawaii to try out the water here for tuna and sword fish. He will be accompanied by Col. W. E. Plummer of Yorkshire, England, a life member of the Catalina Tuna Club.

Field has been working throughout the summer on his correspondence with leading sportsmen of the world, and is confident that this winter will see a colony of anglers here that will surpass the most optimistic. "Hawaii is on the map for fishing, and every folder and piece of railroad literature sent out is featuring the game-fishing of Hawaii. The sportsmen will come from all parts of the world this winter," he said.

Honolulu's Team In Coast League To Be Announced

Bowling stock has taken a sudden rise in the local field. The cause of the rise was the announcement this morning that the team that will represent the local association in the Pacific coast Y. M. C. A. Bowling League will be selected this afternoon by the bowling committee. Capt. Norris Stayton, chairman of this committee, has called the meeting for 4 p. m. at the Y. M. C. A.

The committee will have a big job on hand making this selection as there are a number of high bowlers who are steady and consistent in scoring among the membership. The local association is determined to capture the championship and loving cup of this year's tournament and will spare no efforts in getting together an aggregation that will bring home the bacon.

bureaus, the consul general said, were established chiefly to expedite Anglo-French exchanges on merchandise and its effect upon American trade would be limited to a few articles.

MILLS MIDGETS WORKING PLAYS FOR KAM. TRIAL

Manbaites Take Interest in Gridiron Game Since Contest With McKinley

The gridiron men of Mills have taken a double interest in the game since they held McKinley to a nothing to nothing score last Saturday in their initial game. Coach Ross will give his team hard practice for about a week in forming new plays and scrimmage work with the College of Hawaii squad. All the players are in good condition, with the exception of Okino, who is still in the hospital suffering from a sprained ankle which he sustained during the Mills-McKinley game. He played right guard and his showing in the first game gave proof that he is a good man for that position. He will probably be out by next week and may be able to play the next game.

Play Kamehameha

The Mills lightweight will not play this coming Saturday. By not playing this week the boys will have about two weeks of solid practice before they play Kamehameha the following Saturday. The Kamehameha team is heavy and fast, but this will not affect Mills, and it won't be surprising to see the Manbaites play a hard game against the heavyweights. This afternoon Mills will have a scrimmage practice with the College of Hawaii team at the latter's field.

FEDERALS MEET BANKERS TONIGHT

With tonight's games on the Y. M. C. A. alleys the Federal team will make its debut in the schedule of the Y. M. C. A. Bowling League. This is the only team that has not played, but the individual members have been rolling games during the week to get in trim and they are going strong after the scalp of the Financiers. Capt. Soares' money handlers broke even against the Sugar Factors in the opening of the league last week and when this aggregation meets Capt. Mills' government men tonight there will be some interesting and classy bowling.

In the way of government representation the Federals are some cosmopolitan bunch. They are: George K. Mills, U. S. Engineer, captain; B. H. Hornberger of Fort Ruger; W. D. Wilder, customhouse; John Hopkins, Fort Shafter; John McTaggart, College of Hawaii, and H. S. Canario, Rapid Transit Company. These men will be in tonight's lineup. Capt. Norris Stayton of Ft. Kamehameha, A. T. Bonner of the submarine flotilla, and Andrew Mosley of Schofield Barracks are also members, but being out of town they are not included.

The Financiers will use O. P. Soares, Jack Milton, W. A. Raseman, Allen Wilcox, Harold Morgan, Louis Stephens and Glenn McTaggart.

PUNAHOU ROOKIES WANT TO MEET ST. LOUIS TEAM

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

OAHU COLLEGE, Oct. 12.—There is a broad interest in football at Punahou this year. The thinness of material caused a keen anxiety in the school, and enough men rallied to the cause to make four teams and more.

The men are almost all young and small. The turnout was soon divided into two groups and a large number was sent to the lower athletic field to be coached by Coaches Silverman and Marsh. These two men have a lively bunch of two teams and a few extra sub out every night. They are learning the game well, and when they get into their later school years they are sure to be big factors in Punahou's winning teams.

These two "child teams" are anxious to arrange for games with outside teams. It is probable that they will play the second St. Louis team as a curtain-raiser to the Punahou-College of Hawaii game next Saturday. If they do play, the game will be worth seeing, for these midgets have a scrappy and heady little crew.

ages, alleging Mars promised to take her on a flight and his failure to do so caused her loss, humiliation and embarrassment.
